Kingdom Assignment Reports

Due to the bad weather, the reports on Kingdom Assignments have been delayed until January 13, when more people will be able to attend the services. That evening we will begin hearing reports from those who are so kind as to share their experiences with us. Sis. Peterson would like to keep a journal of our church's Kingdom Assignments and requests that you to turn in written reports about your assignments. These reports will continue in the evening service on Sunday, January 17. The reports given on January 13 will be video-taped; those given on January 17 will be streamed live to our church's web site.
